HOME OF THE NEW ZEALAND OPEN

MILLBROOK

QUEENSTOWN | NEW ZEALAND

Surrounded by the towering mountains of the Wakatipu basin, Millbrook Resort has a stunning 36 hole golf course set amongst 650 acres of scenic rolling greens and water features. Designed by golf masters Sir Bob Charles and Greg Turner, a round here is simply an unforgettable experience.

Home of the New Zealand Open, this prestigious course regularly receives global awards including best Asia Pacific Golf Course, and we are proud to offer perfect year-round golfing conditions for all our guests and visitors. Our course is best described as an alpine links course, offering a variety of natural hazards including tussocks, streams, schist stone, trees and buildings. With five different tee positions, the course offers a challenge for all levels of expertise.

Millbrook offers more than just golf, with luxury accommodation on-site, five excellent dining options, an award-winning day spa, health & fitness centre, conference & wedding venues, real estate and country club membership.

HOME OF THE NEW ZEALAND OPEN

The biggest week on the New Zealand golfing calendar, the New Zealand Open is an event for golf enthusiast and casual spectators alike. It is a great chance to get along and see the two championship courses at Millbrook Resort and take in the beautiful Central Otago surrounds.

What makes this tournament special is its unique Pro-Am format. The professional players will compete for the New Zealand Open title, whilst simultaneously pairing with an amateur to play a best-ball tournament for the New Zealand Pro-Am Championship. The event showcases Queenstown and New Zealand as a world-class golfing destination and also provides a platform for New Zealand business leaders to engage with counterparts from the Asia Pacific region.
